

March 6 - Professional Education Series Continues

On March 6, the Coalition sponsored a seminar for professionals and volunteers called "Bereavement: Supporting Caregivers and Those Who are Left Behind."

Over 60 people participated in this event. The opening speaker explored grief as a normal human experience. Subsequent speakers explored the impact of culture, gender, and family dynamics on the grieving process. The session ended with an explanation of resources as well as some practical tips.